

Your journey to the Sunshine Coast begins once you board the Ferry in Horseshoe Bay. In only 40 minutes you will arrive at the Langdale terminal, so take a short rest and enjoy the sights as you cross the Inlet. Driving off the Ferry, you will soon arrive in the first town along your way to the Lily Pad, Gibsons. During the 26 km drive to the next main town, Sechelt, you will pass the quaint communities of Roberts Creek, Wilson Creek and sandy beaches of Davis Bay.

Upon entering Sechelt drive until you come to the third set of lights. You will turn right onto Wharf Street. Continue driving on Wharf Street for four blocks, preparing to turn right onto Porpoise Bay Road. It's a 9 km drive out of Sechelt to the Lily Pad and during your journey you will pass Porpoise Bay Provincial Park, the small community of Sandy Hook and finally the northernmost community of Tuwanek. Your cottage is waiting for you at 7575 Sechelt Inlet Road.

Travel Tools

- BC Ferries : schedules and routes between Vancouver and the Sunshine Coast
- BC Ferries Reservations : provides online reservation options for travellers
- Pacific Wings Airlines : offers scheduled and chartered flights to a variety of destinations